

Using the MBS to expand the range of services for your clients

Tuesday 19 August 2008
9.45am – 4.00pm

Department of Human Services
Old Library, Level 1
50 Lonsdale St, Melbourne

AGENDA

9.45am	Registration, coffee & tea
10.00am	Welcome	Janet Laverick Director, Primary Health
10.10am	Introduction to workshop	Kim Marr, Manager, General Practice Partnerships Primary Health
10.20am	New MBS item numbers & their relevance to community health clients <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Models of care • Enablers & challenges • Supporting resources 	Peter Larter General Practice Partnerships Primary Health
11.00am	Introduction to the market stalls	Kim Marr
11.05am	Morning Tea
11.25am	Workshop – 2 x 'market stalls'	Presented by community health services (see descriptions of market stalls)
12.30pm	Lunch
1.10pm	Workshop – 2 x 'market stalls'	Presented by community health services (see descriptions of market stalls)
2.15pm	Putting it into action – from agency, ABHI-PCIP/Division, PCP & DHS perspectives	Group discussion
2.50pm	Afternoon tea on the run
3pm	General practice workforce: recruitment, retention & models of practice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overview of workforce issues & DHS initiatives • Specific initiatives for rural areas • Practice nursing 	Glenda Gorrie & Tanja Surwald Medical Workforce Service & Workforce Planning DHS Julie Middleton Assistant Manager, Workforce Support Rural Workforce Agency Victoria Helen Threlfall Division Development General Practice Victoria
4.00pm	Close	