

Contents

---

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
Executive Summary	1
Part 1: Literature Review	9
<hr/>
Introduction	9
Aims	9
Scope of literature review	9
Themes	10
1.1 Trends in growth of the CALD aged population	10
1.1.1 Defining the CALD population	10
1.1.2 Victoria in national context	11
1.1.3 Implications for community care services	11
1.2 Distribution of CALD populations	12
1.2.1 CALD communities in capital cities	12
1.2.2 CALD communities in regional and metropolitan LGAs in Victoria	13
1.2.3 Implications for community care: Distribution of CALD communities	14
1.3 Factors affecting use of community services	15
1.3.1 Special need	15
1.3.2 Reports of service use	17
1.3.3 Client characteristics	19
1.3.4 Carer roles	23
1.3.5 Changing meanings of culture and culturally appropriate care	24
1.3.6 Implications for community care: the multi-factorial nature of special need	26
1.4 Service planning and delivery	26
1.4.1 Studies of specific communities	27
1.4.2 HACC Service Development Grant projects	27
1.4.3 Development and implementation of the HACC Cultural Planning Tool	28

1.4.4 Commonwealth and interstate reports	29
1.4.5 Models of service delivery	31
1.4.6 Implications for community care: Consolidation of service delivery strategies	33
1.5 Researching CALD communities	36
1.5.1 Data collection, analysis and interpretation	36
1.5.2 Data quality	37
1.5.3 Study design, data sources and methods of analysis	37
1.5.4 Implications for community care: Inclusion of cultural diversity in the ageing research agenda	38

Part 2: Current and projected patterns of ageing in CALD communities in Victoria 41

---

2.1 The mosaic of ageing in culturally and linguistically diverse communities	41
2.1.1 Diversity in size, age and language groups	41
2.1.2 Age, language spoken and proficiency in English	42
2.1.3 Indicators of need	44
2.2 Ageing in CALD communities now	45
2.2.1 Why ageing is important in planning HACC services	45
2.2.2 Comparison of age structure of CALD and English speaking populations	45
2.2.3 Differences in ageing between CALD communities	46
2.3 Ageing in CALD communities in future	48
2.3.1 Future ageing indicated by age structure of CALD communities	48
2.3.2 Projections of ageing populations in CALD communities	51
2.4 Where are CALD populations ageing?	54
2.4.1 Metropolitan and regional differences	54
2.4.2 The CALD population in regional Victoria	56
2.4.3 Differences between Metropolitan LGAs	57
2.5 Languages spoken and proficiency in English	60
2.5.1 Differences in proficiency in English between ageing and aged cohorts	60
2.5.2 Relative size of communities and levels of proficiency	62
2.5.3 Language and proficiency in English as indicators of need for culturally oriented services	64

PART 3: Profiles of ageing in CALD communities in Metropolitan Regions 67

---

Outline 67

Regional Profile: Northern sector of Northern & Western Metropolitan Region 67

1. Overview 67
2. Representation of total CALD communities across LGAs 68
3. Comparison of 45-64 and 65 and over age groups by LGA 69
4. Mix of language groups 70
5. Proficiency in English 72

Regional Profile: Western sector of the Northern & Western Metropolitan Region 73

1. Overview 73
2. Representation of CALD communities across LGAs 74
3. Comparison of 45-64 and 65+ age groups 74
4. Mix of language groups 76
5. Proficiency in English 76

Regional Profile: Eastern Metropolitan Region 78

1. Overview 78
2. Representation of CALD communities across LGAs 79
3. Comparison of 45-64 and 65+ age groups 79
4. Mix of language groups 79
5. Proficiency in English 81

Regional Profile: Southern Metropolitan Region 83

1. Overview 83
2. Representation of CALD communities across LGAs 83
3. Comparison of 45-64 and 65+ age groups 85
4. Mix of language groups 87
5. Proficiency in English 88

PART 4: Data profiles for Local Government Areas in metropolitan regions (ON CD) 89

---

APPENDIX 1: Top 20 languages spoken in Victoria 91

References 95