

Anne McCamish - Mayor of Greater Shepparton

Anne McCamish was elected as a Councillor for the City of Greater Shepparton in 2000 and has been Mayor since March 2003. Anne is Chairperson of Health Plan Advisory Panel and was First Executive Officer of the Fairley Leadership Program from 1997 to 1999.

From 1988, Anne has worked in her own workplace training business. Before then she taught at Shepparton Girls High School and for ten happy and fulfilling years at Mooroopna Secondary School. Anne also took time out to raise two sons.

Anne has a special interest in the health and wellbeing of the community – the arts, young people and education – and has been a key instigator of development of the Greater Shepparton Municipal Public Health Plan. Anne has a passionate interest in art, reading and gardening.