REVOCATION OF RESTRICTED COMMUNITY TREATMENT ORDER

Notes to completing this form

The patient must be given a copy of this Revocation of Restricted Community Treatment Order.

The delegated/ authorised psychiatrist or chief psychiatrist (as the case requires) must be satisfied on reasonable grounds that the criteria in section 93(1)(a) of the Sentencing Act 1991 still apply to the patient.

Reasonable steps must have been taken, without success, to obtain the patient's compliance with their restricted community treatment order or treatment plan.

A patient who is the subject of a revoked restricted community treatment order is taken to be absent without leave until such time as the person is returned to the approved mental health service.

A patient who is absent without leave may be apprehended at any time by a 'prescribed person' in accordance with section 43 of the Mental Health Act 1986 (see details over page).

TO THE PATIENT

- (1) I have revoked your Restricted Community Treatment Order.
(2) This means you must return to hospital immediately. If you do not return to hospital, you can be apprehended at any time and taken to hospital.
(3) I have revoked your Restricted Community Treatment Order because:
[] The treatment you require can no longer be obtained under a Restricted Community Treatment Order.
OR
[] You have not complied with your Restricted Community Treatment Order or your treatment plan. I am satisfied that there is a significant risk of deterioration in your mental or physical condition because of the non-compliance.

(please cross [x] one option only)

(4) The reasons for my decision are:

Apprehension of patient who is subject to a revoked restricted community treatment order

1. A patient who is absent without leave may be apprehended at any time by a 'prescribed person' in accordance with section 43 of the Mental Health Act 1986.
2. For the purpose of taking the person to an approved mental health service, a 'prescribed person' may, with such assistance as is required and such force as may be reasonably necessary, enter any premises in which the 'prescribed person' has reasonable grounds for believing that the patient may be found and if necessary to enable the patient to be taken safely, use such restraint as may be reasonably necessary.
3. If a 'prescribed registered medical practitioner' considers that it is necessary to sedate the patient so that the patient can be taken safely to the approved mental health service, he or she may administer or direct an 'authorised person' to administer sedation.
4. A person who uses restraint or administers sedation must complete the relevant forms Restraint or Sedation that are attached to the form Recommendation (Schedule 2).
