

Licensing of Non Emergency Patient Transport Providers

Application for Stand-by service accreditation

Who can apply for stand-by service accreditation?

- Any person operating a NEPT company licensed to provide medium and or high acuity transports

What is required to apply for a NEPT licence?

- Stand-by service accreditation application form - (Schedule 6 NEPT regulations)

What happens after an application is made?

- On receipt of the application form and the application fee:
 - All information submitted from the licensed NEPT organisation is verified.
- The Department has 60 days after receiving a complete application to inform the applicant of a decision or;
- The Department may request additional information, if this happens then the Department must provide a response within 28 days of receiving the requested additional information.