

Delivering women-centred healthcare

Women's Health Clinics are located across Victoria and provide women, girls and gender diverse people access to specialist care and advice for a range of women's health conditions and concerns.

This can include endometriosis, pelvic pain, heavy menstrual bleeding, prolapse and incontinence, abortion, contraception and menopause services.

Services are usually free, and a referral is needed from your GP or healthcare professional.

Scan the QR code to find out more.

Women's Health Clinic

