

Study postgraduate mental health nursing with a $3000 scholarship

Applications close: Tuesday 27 October 2026

The Department of Health is providing scholarships of up to $3000 to registered nurses and registered psychiatric nurses working in Victorian public mental health and wellbeing services to support postgraduate study in specialist mental health qualifications.

The scholarships can contribute to course fees and other related study costs, paid directly to individual recipients.

Don't miss out on an opportunity to advance your career in a world class mental health and wellbeing system.

The Department of Government Services administers the scholarships on behalf of the Department of Health.
