Introduction

This document has five parts:

1. An explanation of the Language Services Credit Line system.
2. Eligibility requirements for agencies to determine their access to the credit lines.
3. Guidelines for each of the credit lines.
4. The process for accessing the credit lines.
5. Conditions of use.

Part One – The Credit Line System Explained

The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) provides funding for language services through a variety of mechanisms. The subject of this document is the Language Services Credit Line – Health Programs (“the Credit Line”).

What is the Credit Line system?

The Credit Line system is a centrally funded and administered contract for language services. Health program areas allocate an annual budget to the Credit Line/s and this budget is used to provide language services to their funded services. Program areas also determine what Department of Health and Human Services funded organisations will be eligible to access the Credit Lines. (See Part 2 for eligibility information and Part 3 for a list of the Credit Lines.)

As of 1 December 2013, the provider of the Language Services Credit Line – Health Programs is Language Loop (formerly VITS). For information about Language Loop visit the Language Loop website. (See Part 4 for information on how to book services with Language Loop).

What services are provided through the credit line system?

The funds in the Credit Line can only be used for language services provided by Language Loop. Three types of language services are available:

- Telephone interpreting
- On-site interpreting (spoken languages and Auslan)
- Translation (only available through some credit lines - check part 3 for program specific conditions)

What is the availability of these services?

Hours of availability

Services are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
Where possible, please book all onsite language services ahead of time and arrange these services within normal business hours. It is understood that this is not always possible and Language Loop is contracted to provide out-of-hours services.

If you need an immediate, urgent service, please consider whether a telephone interpreter will meet your needs.

Funding Limitations

Each Credit Line has an annual budget that is broken down into monthly allocations, or monthly limits. Bookings can be made up to 30 days in advance and up until the monthly limit is reached. Once the available funds for the month have been used for a particular credit line, no more bookings can be made against that Credit Line. Language Loop will let you know whether funds remain when you make a booking.

Interpreter and Translator Availability

Availability of language services under the Credit Line is also dependent on the availability of interpreters and translators. This is more of an issue for some languages than others. Language Loop will tell you at the time of booking whether the service requested is available and will suggest alternative ways of meeting the service requirement.

What happens if the Credit Line monthly limit has been reached?

If the monthly limit for the Credit Line for your program has been reached, you will not be able to make a booking using Credit Line funds. However you will be given two options. They are:

- to make a booking for the following month
- to go ahead with the booking but your organisation will need to pay for the service.

It is departmental policy that clients are provided with language services at critical points. (See the Department of Health and Human Services Language Services Policy).

It is expected that organisations may need to utilise their operational budgets for this purpose. Where this places an organisation’s resources under pressure, this should be communicated in the first instance to your Department of Health and Human Services liaison officer and, if required, be included in discussions on annual budgets, performance targets, or unit costs.

Part Two – Who is Eligible?

To be eligible to access the Language Services Credit Line – Health Programs you must:

- Not receive direct funding for language services from DHHS; and
- Use the language services for one of the eligible programs in the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Alcohol &amp; Other Drugs</th>
<th>All organisations in receipt of AOD funding except those services delivered in Community Health Centres that receive direct funding for language services.</th>

                      |  - Standalone and integrated community health and women's health;
                      |  - Community health funded statewide services; Community health funded multi-purpose services; and
                      |  - Community health funded aboriginal organisations.
                      | Large Community Health Services (over $10,000 per annum) may allocate use of the Credit Line as the first priority for alcohol and drug clients and may utilise direct agency funding provided for language services, as a secondary source of support.
                      | It is recognised that direct agency funding is also provided for access to language services. | services by clients other than alcohol and drug.

A number of agencies also receive direct agency funding for language services that is tied to clients of the Refugee Health Program and the Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies programs – receipt of funding for these programs does not affect eligibility of the agency to use the Credit Line.

Eligible agencies in receipt of Refugee Health Program funding are also able to access language services support from the Refugee Health Program credit line. Eligible agencies should first use any direct Refugee Health Program funding for language services before accessing the Refugee Health Program credit line.

Part Three - Guidelines for Each of the Credit Lines

Program areas are responsible for setting funding limits and conditions for credit lines related to their programs. For example, the community health program sets the guidelines for the community health credit line. If you wish to discuss the program specific guidelines or funding levels, call or email the contacts listed in the table below.

How do I get a PIN to access the credit lines?

If your organisation is eligible to access the language services credit line (check part 2 for eligibility), you will have been provided with a PIN or PINs. Organisations that are funded for a range of program types may have multiple PINs.

How do I book language services with Language Loop?
For Onsite Interpreter Bookings
Bookings can be made via the Online Booking System, by telephone and by email. The most efficient service is provided through the online booking system, and agencies are encouraged to book using the Language Loop Client Portal. Instructions for booking are as follows:

Follow the prompts to make new interpreter bookings; to view, manage, edit or cancel your interpreter bookings; and to view any past interpreter bookings.

Organisations accessing the community care credit lines are required to select an assignment type code when booking an onsite interpreter, either through the online booking system or by phone, as this assists with identification of the correct program funding sources. The assignment type code for these credit lines are:

DH01-Onsite - Commonwealth Home Support Programme (CHSP clients aged 65 and over)
DH03-Onsite - Home and Community Care Program for Younger People (HACC-PYP clients aged under 65)

To pre-book a telephone interpreter

While immediate connection to a telephone interpreter is the preferred option agencies can, if required, pre-book a telephone interpreter for assignments expected to go for a longer duration (i.e. over 60 minutes).

Information to include when making a complaint:

Tips for Ensuring a Good Service

Interpreting

1. Book your service as far ahead as possible (up to 30 days) – you are more likely to find that there are funds available in the credit line and that an interpreter will be available.

2. Cancel bookings as soon as you find that you do not need the service – Last minute cancellations are charged to the credit line meaning that there will be less funds available and less interpreters available for other services and for your service.

Translating

1. Check that the translation you want is not already available on the Health Translations Directory.

2. Simplify your language and, where possible, shorten the document.

3. For further information refer to the DHHS Language Services Policy and its accompanying guidelines How to work with interpreting and translating services.

Part Five – Conditions of Use

Use of the credit line by staff from your agency will constitute agreement to the following Conditions of Use:

- Credit Line access is restricted to eligible DHHS health programs, Regional Assessment Services or eligible Victorian organisations in receipt of Commonwealth Home Support Programme funding.

- PIN numbers should only be used for the appropriate programs. For example, community health services should only use their community health PIN for community health clients.

- PINs must not be disclosed to third parties. DHHS will receive reporting on the use of PINs and will question inappropriate use.

- Please advise Language Loop of any cancellations as soon as possible. Late cancellations are charged to the credit line and waste the available resources.

- Bookings can only be made up to 30 days in advance.

- Complaints about the quality of services provided by Language Loop should be raised directly with Language Loop in the first instance. If you do not feel comfortable communicating this directly to Language Loop please contact DHHS at dhlanguageservices@health.vic.gov.au or speak to your Health Programs liaison officer. For further information see the Information to include when making a complaint section at the top of this page.

- You must notify your Health Programs liaison officer of any changes in funding, which are likely to affect your organisation’s eligibility to access DH funded language services, as well as of changes in contact details.

- DHHS reserves the right to withdraw credit line access.

Interpreting

- Credit line interpreting services should only be used for direct service delivery situations, such as interviews, consultations with clients and their families, or group situations that are either focused on specific health or well-being outcomes directly related to the core business of the agency or are agreed integral practices of the approved service.

- Interpreting services provided under these guidelines are not intended to include:
  - Management meetings
  - Staff meetings
  - Social meetings
Translating

- In providing translations under these guidelines, priority will be given to the translation of documents that facilitate direct client-care or support. This generally will not include:
  - Minutes of meetings
  - Annual reports
  - Corporate or business plans
  - Mission statements or organisational goals
  - Advertising and agency publicity
  - Medical procedure brochures

Should you have a query regarding the suitability of your document for translation through the credit line please email dhlanguageservices@dhhs.vic.gov.au to discuss prior to lodging the document with Language Loop. Translations found not to meet the guidelines may result in invoices being re-booked to your organisation.

- Organisations should check whether relevant translated information already exists on the Health Translations Directory before requesting translations. The Health Translations Directory is an online portal for health professionals and the wider community to access multilingual health resources. The Directory aims to support the needs of culturally and linguistically diverse communities by providing the high-quality translated health information needed to make informed health and lifestyle choices with more than 10,000 resources in 90 languages.
