

I am aware that some board chairs have little if any in depth understanding of the clinical or financial governance requirements and leave all to the CEO. I recommend a compulsory accreditation for board chairs in these two areas. It is then up to the chair to see that all members have his/her accreditation and this is reported in the quality of Care doc.

Leo Casey
Chair Rural Northwest Health